Defendant.	)

Robert Lawrence Stace, through his attorney, Manny K. Atwal, moves the Court for an order suppressing all statements, admissions and answers made by the defendant. On February 24, 2020, Mr. Stace's state probation officers encountered Mr. Stace at Emerge. They believed he was viewing pornography. It was unclear what happened next, but discovery indicates that Mr. Stace made incriminating statements (at Emerge and during transport to the jail). No Miranda warning was given and as such the statements should be suppressed.

Dated: September 1, 2020

Respectfully submitted,

s/Manny K. Atwal
